KUALA LUMPUR FOOD

With a variety of cultural tastes in Kuala Lumpur, there's a fulfilling mix of cuisines and flavours throughout the city. Petaling Street is the bustling Chinatown of Kuala Lumpur where you can try Hokkien black mee noodles, sambal dry noodles and long yok (minced pork). The Brickfield neighbourhood is known as Little India, where banana leaves are served for breakfast, and dahl and vegetable curries are plentiful. Traditional Malay buffets are found in Kampung Baru.

MENARA KUALA LUMPUR

Also known as the Kuala Lumpur Tower, Menara Kuala Lumpur is the 6th tallest telecommunications tower in the world. At 421 metres high, Menara KL is an engineering marvel and the perfect place for city views. The observation deck and revolving restaurant provide even greater views, while the 6D adventure ride provides excitement for kids aged 6 and above.

MOSQUES AND TEMPLES

Jamek Mosque is in the heart of KL and the oldest Islamic mosque in the city. Built in 1909, its architecture is based on Northern Indian influences. The National Mosque, or Masjid Negara is a display of modern Malaysia, built in 1965 shortly after independence from Britain was gained. Set amongst beautiful gardens, it is a peaceful site. There are also many Hindu temples in Kuala Lumpur including The Batu Caves in the Gombak district.

THEME PARKS

The whole family will enjoy Malaysia's fun-loving vibe. Popular amusement parks include Legoland, which has over 40 rides and attractions, with all buildings made of the worldwide famous lego bricks! The Genting Highlands is a family entertainment mega-complex, perched at an altitude of 2,000 metres! For something unique, i-City in Shah Alam is 'a city of digital lights' with its unique displays lighting up the city.

LANGKAWI

Langkawi is a gem in the Andaman Sea lying 30 kilometres off the Malaysian coast. Renowned for its serene beaches and resorts, Langkawi is a fully-ledged tourist retreat. Popular with honeymooners and couples, it is a romantic spot blessed with significant natural beauty.

HIGHLIGHTS

Langkawi Beaches
Some of the best beaches in the world.

Langkawi Cable Car
A great way to cool down in the mountain air.

Langkawi Island Cruises
Take various cruises around these idyllic islands.

LANGKAWI BEACHES

With arguably some of the best beaches in the world, Langkawi has a wide selection of different beaches to suit your mood. Black Sand Beach is popular for its uniquely coloured sand; Pantai Cenang is a tourist favourite for soft sand, restaurants and bars; and Pantai Kok is the secluded beach to go to if you don't ever want to be found!

LANGKAWI CABLE CAR

The ideal way to view Langkawi's incredible surrounds is a trip on a cable car. Taking you to the top of Mount Mat Cinang, Langkawi's second-highest peak, the cable car is also a great way to cool down in the mountain air. You can take a full tour including a cable car trip, a journey through Oriental Village, and a trip to the Langkawi Wildlife Park.

LANGKAWI ISLAND CRUISES

Only a few of the Langkawi islands are developed for tourism, while the others are largely uninhabited. You can take various cruises around these idyllic islands, private or chartered. Some operators specialise in 'sunset tours' due to the beauty of the Langkawi sunset. Paulau Bumbon is an island known for its seclusion and peaceful beaches, while Pulau Tuba is fishing-village-perfect for hiking and bird-watching.

PENANG

Penang Island is an island off Malaysia's north-western coast popular for heritage sites, beaches, scrumptious food, and bustling villages. Beach resorts, fishing villages and hawker centres bring tourists and locals together. Outdoor activities, cooking classes and cultural sites combine to make an enriching and insightful Malaysian island experience.

Georgetown

Home to many festivals, including some of the biggest in Malaysia.

Penang Cuisine

Don't miss the hundreds of red gates.

GEORGETOWN

Georgetown is the capital of the state of Penang and is a historical, cultural town. Like other parts of Malaysia, the city is scattered with historic mosques and temples, both Chinese and Indian. Best explored on foot, Georgetown is where you can see traditional trades in practice. The Cheong Fatt Tze Mansion is a Chinese mansion and restored heritage site, a famous Georgetown icon. Visit The Street of Harmony which is popular for a church, two mosques, a Hindu temple and three Confucian-Buddhist-Taoist temples all sitting in harmony together.

PENANG CUISINE

Penang is synonymous with delectable Indian, Chinese and Malay food, whether at a hawker centre or in a dining establishment. Wonton mee is a popular egg noodle dish with Chinese kale and wontons. Penang arguably makes the best wonton mee which you can taste for yourself at Lebu Chulia. Char kway teow, a worldwide favourite but a true Penang specialty, is pure rice-noodle and prawn decadence. Try New World Park Food Court for a great serve of Penang fried lat noodles.

Experience Malaysia

WE CAN PLAN AND CARRY OUT YOUR GREAT HOLIDAYS

THAILAND OVERVIEW

Cultural phenomenon, shopping haven and tourist treasure. Welcome to Bangkok; one of the most cosmopolitan, contrasting and, above all, compelling of Asian cities. A steamy, pulsating, yet smiling metropolis of more than ten million souls - intense at first, but addictive as anything.

Come find your niche among dazzling temples, hotels of every type and size, eclectic markets, gleaming palaces, ritzy shopping malls, a famous nightlife and the many things in between. Enjoy a memorable dinner cruise along the Chao Phraya River. Bask in the city's warm, affluent glow at a skyscraping rooftop bar. Experience all the things - a tuk-tuk ride, a ladyboy show, Muay Thai (kickboxing) match, Thai massage - everyone always comes home talking about.

THAILAND WHAT TO SEE

Bangkok

Covering an area of 1,500sqkm, the greater Bangkok Metropolis fits into the 'big city' league with ease.

Pattaya

The center of life in Pattaya is the Pattaya Beach. Hotels, restaurants and malls along the roads, area is vibrant & filled with culture.

Phuket

Phuket is known for its beach. Various temples, historic sights, buildings and wats can be found around the island.
